

Supplementary Figure 9: Plotted using the “car” package where each variable is displayed on the x-axis, while the y-axis shows the dependent variable (Komagataeibacter relative abundance). Note that 4 points are labelled on each plot. Two of these are the samples with the largest residuals and the other two were those with the largest partial leverage.